Dear Subscriber,

BREAKING NEWS FLASH:

Search Warrant Unsealed in Premier Medical Case

A search warrant authorized in 2007, that had previously been issued under seal, for business enterprises and persons believed to be associated with Premier Medical was released to the public.

The warrant provides a detailed description of an alleged arrangement used to funnel medical treatment and other services through the use of a 1-800 number, illegal referral fee payment and other allegedly improper conduct. The names of several prominent southern California workers' compensation practitioners are stated in the warrant.

Because of the detailed and technical nature of the allegations set forth in the search warrant, only this limited news is being provided at this time. Our readers should be on the lookout for further, more detailed, updates in the future. As the full impact of this breaking news is being studied, a link to the warrant is included for the independent review of our readers and anyone with further questions is encouraged to send an e-mail to either email@workcompnews.com or Mr. Terry Smith at tsmith@fsklaw.com.
