This Firm Means Business (SM)

Dear Subscriber,

IMPORTANT OPPORTUNITY!

The last day to register for the May 9, 2009 Self-Insurance Administrator Examination is quickly approaching on April 3, 2009. As those in the workers' compensation claims community know, the Self-Insurance Administrator Certification can be a substitute for the many hours of study and/or experience needed in order to be employed as a workers' compensation claims adjuster in the State of California.

To assist our clients in preparing for this important examination, Mr. Rene Folse, J.D., Ph.D., will be hosting a complimentary two day preparation seminar for our clients shortly before the test in the first week of May.

If you are interested in attending this preparation course, please provide us with your contact information prior to April 10, 2009 and final details of this event will be forwarded to you as soon as they are confirmed.

DWC CONFERENCE A HUGE SUCCESS FOR FS&K

Once again the annual DWC Conference in Los Angeles and Oakland was a tremendous success for Floyd, Skeren & Kelly. As is customary, we maintained a booth at both locations.

In Los Angeles, the attendees were treated to the insight and delights of Retired Judge David O'Brien, Amanda Manukian, David Jimenez, Michael McConville, John Floyd, and Todd Kelly. What made this year special was that we were the only law firm to sponsor a booth at the southern California conference. Congratulations went to Ms. Rhonda M. Massaro, Claims Examiner with Fontana Unified School District as the winner of a brand new iPod touch.

The excitement was no less in Oakland where Roger Cartozian, Dennis Beaton, Judge O'Brien, Todd Kelly, and Bernadette O'Brien were seen with an array of attendees. The iPod touch was claimed by Ms. Michelle McClain, Senior Claims Examiner with AIMS in Sacramento.

The booths once again assured both current and prospective clients that Floyd, Skeren & Kelly delivers the highest quality of legal advice coupled with unparalleled service. We thank everyone in attendance who made both conferences that much more special for us, and we look forward to seeing each and every one of you next year! Thank you.
